

K-Love encourages and impacts my family, in a positive way, just like their logo states. Many people in the community would be disappointed if K-Love was replaced. It is in the public interest because KLOVE is a valuable tool to keep our families together around the world.